

Kishwaukee United Way

CALL 2-1-1

Your non-emergency resource to find health and community services in DeKalb County

- Available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, and can also be accessed by calling 888-865-9903 or from the web at www.findhelp211.org
- Find information about services from non-profit agencies; local municipalities and County government; local educational institutions, and others offering free or low-cost programs
- No fee for service and strictly confidential
- Operators trained and certified for coordinated program referrals and disaster recovery
- Help for those who are homeless, in an abusive relationship, or battling an addiction
- Guidance for assistance with rent, utility bills, health care, and housing
- Information about transportation, education, and job training options

2-1-1 in DeKalb County is funded from grants by the DeKalb County Community Foundation, KishHealth a part of Northwestern Medicine, First Midwest Bank, Northern Illinois University, DeKalb Township, DeKalb County Community Mental Health Board and Kishwaukee United Way. Questions or comments may be directed to Kishwaukee United Way by calling 815-756-7522